

ZeZ_Macro Setup Guide

Step 1: Download AutoHotkey from <https://www.autohotkey.com/download/>

Download AutoHotkey Installer

Step 2: Download my zip folder from discord

Step 3: Extract ALL files from the zip folder into a new folder.

Right click the folder and select Extract All

Extract All...

Step 4: Double click zeZ_macro.ahk within the folder to run the macro.

If Autohotkey is not your default program you may need to right click the program, Select open with, and choose Autohotkey.

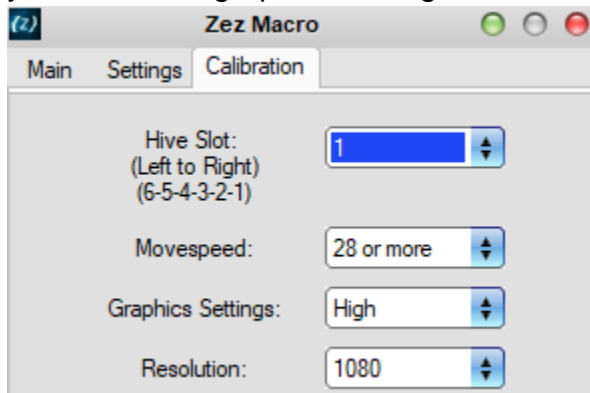

How do you want to open this file?

Keep using this app

AutoHotkey Unicode 64-bit

Step 5: Once you have opened the ahk file, select all the options in the gui that you would like to use. Make sure to use the calibration tab to select your hive slot, graphics settings, and resolution.

After that, you should be good to press start and let the macro run. If you have any issues, make sure that your display scale is set to 100%
